Vienna, October 4. N. S.

THE Malecontents having evacuated Newhauſel, General Heiſter has put a Garriſon into the Place under the Command of Count Zinzendorf, and marched with the Imperial Army towards Scoperſchans, where he underſtood the Enemy had formed a conſiderable Body. Immediately upon his Approach they retired, as did likewiſe Count Caroli with the Forces under his Command from the Neighbourhood of Erla to Sagiva. A Body of Malecontents having ſet fire to the Suburbs of Oedemburg, the Flames reached the Town, and reduced the greateſt part of it to Aſhes. Another Body having killed and carried off ſeveral Perſons that were working in the Vineyards near Alba Regalis, they were encountered in their Retreat by a Party of the Imperialiſts, who entirely defeated them. When General Heiſter has reduced ſuch Poſts as are neceſſary for ſecuring the Communication with Buda, the Army will ſeparate, and go into Winter Quarters. Our Apprehen ons of the Plague are much leſſened, ſince we have been informed that it begins to abate in ſeveral Places, and as the Winter approaches we hope it will ceaſe entirely.

Bruſſels, October 18. N. S. Letters from Vittoria of the 2d Inſtant confirm the Dutcheſs of Anjou's Arrival at that Place the Day before; and our Letters from Paris tell us ſhe was attended by the Council, the ſeveral Courts, and a numerous Retinue. The Duke of Anjou accompanied them the 25th paſt to Cabeçon, and returned the ſame Evening to Valladolid, where he was the 30th. The Body of Troops to be commanded by the Duke of Vendome lay encamped at Tudela de Duero, two Leagues from Valadolid; but the Advices from Paris ſay they were to March the 30th towards Salamanca. Our Letters from Paris add, that the Mareſchal de Noailles was expected ſuddenly at Court, where he is to make a true Repreſentation of the State of Affairs in Spain. After which he is to return into Rouſſillon, where his Army is to be conſiderably reinforced by a ſtrong Detachment from the Duke of Berwick in Dauphiné. It is ſaid, this Detachment will be embarked on Board ſome Veſſels which they are fitting out for that purpoſe at Thoulon. Letters from Francfort of the 12th adviſe, that the two Armies continue in their former Poſts; that the Deputies of the Circles of Swabia and Franconia were daily in Conference with the Count de Gronsfeld, about the Repartition of the Winter Quarters. General Gronsfeld has ſtrengthned his Army with a Detachment from the Garriſon of Landau, and had Orders to keep the Field as long as poſſible, to prevent the Enemy from making any Draughts for Spain.

Hague, October 18. N. S. Signior Grimani arrived here the 14th Inſtant from Venice in his way to England, where he is to reſide in Quality of Ambaſſador from that Republick. The French having lately formed a Deſign to Surprize Mons, in which they were to have been aſſiſted by ſome in Garriſon there; an Officer belonging to the Garriſon of Condé diſcovered the Treaſon, for which he hath been rewarded with a Company in the Regiment of Dopſt, and the chief Conſpirator is fled to Valenciennes. They write from Liſle, that great numbers of Deſerters are brought daily thither. Some from Aire report, that the Garriſon was in great want of Proviſions; that the Governor dared not truſt the Defence of the Outworks to the Swiſs, who grew mutinous for want of Pay. It is farther adviſed that the flying Camp which the French have formed between St. Omer and Bombourg, had been conſiderably ſtrengthned by ſeveral Detachments from their Towns in Flanders, and that they had reinforced the Garriſon of St. Omer, for which Place they were ſtill under ſome Apprehenſions, and had therefore provided it with all manner of Neceſſaries, and were preparing for a long and vigorous Defence. Letters from Paris of the 13th Inſtant tell us, the Duke of Anjou was preparing to put himſelf at the head of his Army, and that the Body of Troops they expected from Eſtremadura conſiſted of ten or twelve thouſand Men. Theſe Letters add, that his Catholick Majeſty's Army continued the 30th of the laſt Month in the Neighbourhood of Madrid; but that ſome Detachments had been made for the Reduction of Toledo and Segovia. The States having reſolved to raiſe two Millions by way of Loan, and propoſed to pay ten per Cent. Intereſt for twenty Years, and ſink the Principal, the Subſcriptions for the ſaid Sum were compleat in three Days time.

Plimouth, October 10. On the 8th Inſtant came in her Majeſty's Ships the Cornwall, Eſſex, Pembroke and Litchfield from Cruiſing, a Dutch Dogger with Butter from Ireland, a Dutch Ship from Curaſoe, two Swedes with Pitch and Tar from Stockholm for this Place, and the Hope of and from Dram, with Deals for a Market. This Day ſailed her Majeſty's Ships the York and Mountague to the Eaſtward.

Falmouth, October 7. Yeſterday ſailed the Peace Dogger Privateer of Fluſhing, to Cruize. Alſo arrived the Page Frigat, Joſ. Cook Commander, in ſeven Weeks from Virginia, from whence ſhe ſailed with twenty eight Sail of Merchantſhips under Convoy of her Majeſty's Ships the Kinſale and Maidſtone, from whom, by bad Weather, ſhe parted the 18th of the laſt Month.

Cowes, October 9. Laſt Saturday in the Evening came to Spithead her Majeſty's Ship the Burlington, having loſt her Maſts. At the ſame time paſſed by for the Downs near one hundred Sail from Virginia and the Weſt Indies under Convoy, who, it is ſaid, all happily joined about the Soundings.
